

Thank you for registering for our 2024 Virtual Symposium.

Below please find helpful information:

- The Virtual Symposium is 100% on-demand.
- In addition to the general session recordings, there are twelve (12) concurrent sessions available. While you are able to watch all the concurrent sessions, you will only be able to claim contact hours for four (4). In addition, we have provide additional bonus content; however, you are not claim contact hours for the bonus material.
- Handouts are available for the presentations and available on the site. You will be able to view and also download the PDFs.
- In order to claim your certificate, you must complete the session evaluation and overall course evaluation. Once both evaluations are complete, you will be able to download the certificate. Please be sure that you have evaluated ALL sessions for a total of 22.5 contact hours. If you have less than 22.5 contact hours, please go back into the Session Evaluation to make sure you have completed each session.

Once you claim your certificate, you will be unable to go back in and claim additional hours. A link to the evaluation will be on the site.

- Claim your certificate by August 31, 2024; however, you will have access to the recordings through December 31, 2024.
